Spring Shade Poetry

Spring Poems by a Fifth Grade

SPRING The days grow warmer and grow bright
And after them a nice spring shower,
To start the little plants a-growing
So's to be green some summer hour
The mother tree puts on her leaves
To hide the nests the birds have made,
To give us sprigs both fresh and green,
In summer days to give us shade -Lucy DUNLAP SMITH

The Spring

By the fireside, but in the cooler shade
Amyntas now doth with his Chloris sleep
Under a sycamore, and all things keep
Time with the season; only she doth carry
June in her eyes, in her heart
January Love Nature Relation ships
The son of a prominent British couple, Thomas Carew grew up in Kent, and was educated at Oxford University
